

Passing the Baton

What happens at the end of the Triennium?

- Continuity
- Handover
- Keeping out of the way
- Doing something else

The good, the bad and the ugly

- Share the good things about being a Trustee
- Be honest about the more challenging and difficult things

- Presidents who will complete 6 years next year
 - How are you going to prepare for handover?
 - How much influence should you have in choosing your successor?
 - What are you going to do next?
- Presidents who started last year
 - What do you wish you had known when you started?
 - Do you feel the board works as a team?
 - Are there things that you would welcome as part of the trustee training days?
- Everyone else!
 - How involved do you feel in what is happening in your diocese?
 - What made you offer yourself as a trustee/rep member?
 - What might have put you off?
 - Was the role description accurate?
