

Worldwide Stories

Read the stories from these 10 members of Mothers' Union from around the world. They are representative of our 4,000,000 worldwide members who identify with this international community.

Do their stories of how they are blessed as they share and are part of the life and mission of Mothers' Union inspire you? Reflect on and discuss your role in Mothers' Union, and consider what value Mothers' Union has in your own life and what you can give back to this international community.

How am I inspired to serve in the life of Mothers' Union?

What gifts and talents do I have to contribute to my local community?

How do I wish to develop myself as a Mothers' Union member?

Finish by drawing yourself, or writing your name, on a card. On the other side write one action that you might take to use your gifts and talents in the life of Mothers' Union and leave it on the table. Take a prayer card.
